

Adam K. Mans, CFA, CFP® is Principal and founder of AKM Advisory, LLC. Adam has 25 years of experience in the financial services industry, including four years as an actuary before beginning his career in the investment management profession. Before starting AKM Advisory in March of 2014, Adam was president and member of the board of directors of Marquette Asset Management in Minneapolis.

Education:

- B.S., Mathematics and Astronomy, Minnesota State University, Mankato
- M.B.A., Finance, Carlson School of Management, University of Minnesota

Professional Designations:

- Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA)
- Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®)

Current Volunteer Activities:

- President, Minnesota State University, Mankato Foundation Board

Previous Volunteer Activities:

- Chair, Investment Committee, Minnesota State University, Mankato Foundation
- Board Member, YMCA Camp du Nord
- Board Member and Coach, Edina Girls Fastpitch Association
- Coach, Edina Baseball Association

